Press Release

In honor of Abe's 200th Birthday Celebration Springfield, IL corn maze premieres this fall: Abe's Corn Maze.

Springfield, IL: Springfield's very own corn maze premieres this fall, named after our very own hometown hero and birthday boy, Abraham Lincoln. Abe's Corn Maze is professionally designed and meticulously cut out of over 10+ acres of corn field and features, get this..... 16,553 feet (over three miles!!!) of hairpin twists and turns. This year's design is dedicated to Abraham Lincoln's bicentennial (200th) birthday.

AbesCornMaze.org began as an idea to bring the community together to provide a safe, family-friendly environment for creating fun memories. It is located just off of I-55, exit 100-B, right next to iWorshipCenter on the north end of Springfield at 3200 Shaler Road; just behind the Farm and Home Supply on N. Dirksen Pkwy. Abe's Corn Maze will be open every weekend in October with special events taking place each Saturday. Hours are Saturdays from 10 am to dusk and Sundays from 2 pm to dusk. Admission for adults is only $5 while admission for children ages six to twelve is $3. Children under six can come for free!!! Group discounts available.

~ Saturday, October 4: Family Fun CORNival kicks off the opening of the corn maze from noon to 6 pm with tons of activities for the whole family including pony rides, rock climbing, a bouncy castle, an inflatable slide, obstacle course, inflatable sumo suit tournament, CORNival games, concession stands and much more.

~ Saturday, October 11: Ethnic Day, featuring performances of different cultures from noon to 6 pm – including native dances, martial arts demonstrations, traditional music and more.

~ Saturday, October 18: The AmeriCORN Idol Contest – it's not your average idol contest; it's a talent show extraordinaire!

~ Saturday, October 25: Crafts and CORNvertibles, featuring a cruise-in and an all day craft show.

The last day to attend the maze will be Sunday, October 26.
