

THE LINCOLN LOG
ON THIS DAY,

DECEMBER 27, 1864

President Lincoln writes to College of New Jersey (now Princeton University) President John Maclean and expresses gratitude for the Doctor of Laws degree that the college's trustees bestowed upon Lincoln. Lincoln writes, "I am most thankful if my labors have seemed to conduce to the preservation of those institutions under which alone we can expect good government and in its train sound learning and the progress of the liberal arts."
