

THE LINCOLN LOG
ON THIS DAY,

FEBRUARY 15, 1855

In Springfield, Lincoln hosts members of the Illinois legislature. A newspaper reports, "Members of the Legislature met...and partook of a dinner provided by the liberality of Mr. Lincoln, at which there was besides good eating, good speeches made, and excellent sentiments offered. The affair passed off very pleasantly."

CO-SPONSORED BY THE ILLINOIS PRESS ASSOCIATION
AND THIS NEWSPAPER