

THE LINCOLN LOG
ON THIS DAY,

JULY 30, 1862

President Lincoln writes to Secretary of the Treasury Salmon Chase on behalf of Samuel Williams. Lincoln explains, "The bearer of this, son of our cook, is a good barber, and a good boy generally, I believe. He had a position during the session of Congress, in which he gave entire satisfaction as I understand, but which came to an end by the adjournment. Please see him a moment, & do something for him if you can."
