NOVEMBER 25, 1860

President-elect Lincoln and Vice-President-elect Hannibal Hamlin attend Sunday services at Chicago's St. James Church, located on the corner of Cass and Huron. A newspaper reports, "In the afternoon, Messrs. Lincoln and Hamlin attended a meeting of the North Market Mission Sabbath School...After the conclusion of the regular services, the President elect delivered a short address, which was received with much pleasure by the destitute children composing the school."
