

THE LINCOLN LOG
ON THIS DAY,

DECEMBER 3, 1860

In Springfield, President-elect Lincoln awaits the Electoral College's confirmation of his election. A newspaper reports, "Mr. Lincoln keeps himself fully posted as to the condition of the money market. Mr. [Jesse] Dubois, the State Auditor, who is in daily and intimate telegraphic and epistolary intercourse with many leading Wall street operators, furnishes him constantly such information as enables him to understand the strange capers of your bulls and bears."
