

THE LINCOLN LOG
ON THIS DAY,

DECEMBER 5, 1864

At Washington D.C.'s Grover's Theater, President Lincoln, his wife, Mary, Secretary of State William Seward, and many "of the elite of the city and of the country," attend the Grand German Opera Company's performance of "Faust." A reviewer writes, "The buzz of approbation upon the termination of each act, and indeed each scene, as well as the numerous interruptions in the way of delighted applause, bore testimony to the success achieved by Manager Grover in bringing out the grand opera...in commensurate style."
